Aletheia Giving

For the last two years we have been supporting „Kick It“ financially. We did plan on also helping out practically, but due to Corona that hasn't really happened yet.

Our promised commitment to Kick has ended in June. We would like everyone to think and pray which organization we would like to support next.

My food is to do the will of the Father

John 4:34 Jesus said unto them, My food is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

Below are some questions that can help us all go deeper with God during our quiet time this week

- What is my current source of nurture? Who or what am I turning to when I need strength, comfort or rest?
- Would I say that my main pursuit is after worldly hunger and needs? Or mainly after spiritual matters?
- How are my needs affecting my relationship with God? Are they causing me to rely more on God and draw closer to Him? Or do they cause me to turn away from Him?
- What does it mean to me to „hunger and thirst for righteousness“? Am I honoring God with this aspect of my life?
- What do my priorities and schedule say about „what my true nurture is“?
- When was the last time I truly and fully pursuit God's will for my life? How did that affect my fulfillment and satisfaction?
